

H is for Honor

Text Dependent Questions

A - What is the main difference between the responsibility of the U.S. Navy and the U.S. Coast Guard?

B - How are childhoods of military “brats” unique?

C - How does the image on the right illustrate the Marine Corps motto?

D - Why would veteran’s be so grateful towards their drill sergeant?

E - Connections to the illustration - What is the illustration communicating to you?

F - How can military life be hectic and unpredictable?

G - What is the significance of Army versus Navy? What is the connection between the military and football?

H - Why do Americans volunteer to serve in the military? If you are not a volunteer, how might you still become a part of the military?

I - Why might it be said that military conversations barely sound like English? Why do you think that is?

J - How was the day-to-day life of Americans transformed with military technology?

K - Why did a photo of a sailor kissing a young woman become so famous?

L - Compare and contrast communication with family at home today with 50 years ago.

M - What is the job of an MP?

N - What is so unique about the design and operation of the U.S. Navy? What comparison is made between the U.S. Navy and U.S. Air Force?

O - What are the advantages and disadvantages to military life for families?

P - What is the purpose for ranks and promotions?

Q - Describe military quarters.

R - Why is TAPS played?

S - Who has contributed to the freedoms we enjoy today?

T - Why can the military be compared to an orchestra?

U - What could you learn from observing the uniform of a member of the military?

V - What is the significance of Veteran's Day?

W - Describe the roles that women have played in the military.

X - How do military bases operate like small towns?

Y - How do people around the world benefit from the U.S. military?

Z - Why does the military use special words to talk on the radio?